In the event that the total number of available rounds falls to 12 then the best 8 results to count, to 10 or 11 then the best 7 results to count etc, If any meeting(s) fail to run, then an event(s) of the same type may be substituted either at an existing or alternative venue. Additional events may be included at the organisers' discretion. Adequate notice will be given in these instances in accordance with the Motorsport UK Yearbook. Registered championship contenders will be provided with stickers which must be displayed on each side of the competing vehicle(s) at each Championship event.

Results for each round will be calculated as follows:

Championship points will be awarded to registered contenders as follows:-

First in class – 20 points plus 0.01 point(s) for every 0.01 second(s) the time better that of the second placed class finisher up to a maximum of 22 points.(If there is only one finisher in the class, then 20 points will be awarded). Second in class– 20 points. All remaining contenders in class: 20 points less 0.01 point(s) for each 0.01sec that their time is exceeds that of the second placed finisher. The minimum score shall be 1 point. In addition to the above scoring system any contender who breaks the existing Class record at a venue will be awarded an additional 0.01 point(s) for each 0.01 second(s) their time beats the record up to a maximum of 1 point. The Class record shall be the record in the relevant class at the start of each meeting. Where no previous Class record exists then a new Class record will be set at the first Championship event that takes place at the venue in 2022

1.6.2 A tie shall be decided by counting the competitor's next best result(s). If this still does not resolve the tie then the competitor with greatest number of class wins amongst their eligible results shall be declared the winner.

1.6.3 Championship Points Appeal C6.5.

1.7 Awards:

1.7.1 The number of awards will be proportional to the number of contenders in the Championship, to a maximum of 5. Additional awards may be given at the Organisers' discretion. No competitor may win more than one award.

1.7.2 Details of the number and levels of awards will be advised as soon as practicable after the closing date for entry to the Championship.
